For six years the National Jewish Theater Foundation - Holocaust Theater International Initiative has expanded the Holocaust Remembrance Reading Program that uses the power of live theater to commemorate the Holocaust -its history, victims and survivors. From the outset, the Miller Center and Feldenkreis Program have collaborated with these important projects.

This year, under the challenging circumstances created by the Corona Virus, we are offering a digital program of Remembrance Readings in honor of

THE SOAP MYTH

The play, directed by Arnold Mittelman, was produced in 2012 by the National Jewish Theater Foundation and presented off Broadway. A staged reading that features two legendary performers, Ed Asner and Tovah Feldshuh was filmed last year at the Center for Jewish History in New York City.

This 80 minute film is now available for free streaming at the link: SOAP MYTH

We look forward to your participation in this commemorative event and we wish you well!
