

THE SUE AND LEONARD MILLER
CENTER FOR CONTEMPORARY JUDAIC STUDIES

THE GEORGE FELDENKREIS
PROGRAM IN JUDAIC STUDIES
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Holocaust Survivors Service Internship JUS 205/REL 406

- Unique, once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to meet with survivors of the Holocaust who currently reside in South Florida.
- Students are expected to commit to two semesters of service for 3 credits each semester involving at least 4 meetings with a survivor.
- Students interns will also meet several times each semester with a UM faculty member to share their experiences and to participate in enrichment activities.
- Students will earn a stipend of $250 per semester (based on number of visits) to cover any transportation costs.
- Outstanding interns will also be eligible for a Sue Miller Scholarship.
- For more information contact Ms. Jeeta Larkey, Program Officer for Judaic Studies, at jsp@miami.edu or 305-284-8180.
- Students of all denominations and backgrounds are welcome! Talk to your advisor and register this Fall 2012 for JUS205/REL406!

UNIVERSITY
OF MIAMI

*The George Feldenkreis
Program in Judaic Studies*
105 Merrick Building
Phone: (305) 284-8180
Fax: (305) 305-284-8190
www.as.miami.edu/judaic